Announcements

From the Superintendent:

- Our seniors last day of school was last Friday. Graduation for both our Center Programs and RHS is coming up in Wednesday, May 28th.
- Congratulations to the RHS Rowing team who finished strong at States this past weekend and good luck to all of the other students participating in spring sports as the season comes to an end.
- I would like to thank everyone for their patience as the roads around the schools are being fixed.

From Board Members:

- Member Beaven-Parshall wanted to congratulate the students and teachers for making it to summer break.
- Member Kane had the pleasure of talking to all of the board members regrading policy work. She is asking the Board to review the policies in teams and bring their suggestions to the Work Session in September.

- Member Martinez wanted to shout out to the Wilson staff for another successful trip to New York City.
- Member Crnkovich wanted to wish the robotics team good luck this weekend!
- Member Kinney helped at RHS with their mock interviews today and was very impressed with the students she met.
