Announcements

From the Superintendent:

- Back to school is right around the corner. We welcome staff back beginning tomorrow and next week our doors will once again be open for students. I am looking forward to a fantastic year!
- Fall sports and band have been practicing for the past few weeks getting ready for competition! If you would like to take in a game or performance they are listed on the WPS website.

Board Members:

- Member Beaven-Parshall wanted to thank the maintenance staff and the food service for their hard work getting the schools ready and happy first day of school to all staff!
